"We realize the responsibility you have placed upon us. We appreciate the honor and we promise to do our best to prove ourselves worthy of it. We feel that you trust us and we know that we have confidence in us, but if you have come to feel that we are not worthy, I am afraid we can never have the co-operation and understanding which is so necessary for success in government. It is your government, we are your representatives, and it is up to you to back us up."

"We Winthrop girls are proud of our school, its rating as an A-1 college, and above all we are proud of our President. Are we proud of our Student Government? If not, why? Let us each ask ourselves the question, 'What can I as an individual do to better it?'"

The meeting was brought to a close by the singing of the college song.

The new officers for the year 1925-26 are:

President, Martha Miller Holler; Vice-president, Nell Peebles; Secretary, Marian Turner; Treasurer, Elithon Richards; Assistant secretary and treasurer, Lillian Davis.

POETRY SOCIETY HEARS PROGRAM ON WAR POETRY

The Winthrop Poetry Society held its regular monthly meeting Wednesday evening, April 8, in the library of Johnsonian Hall. Miss Martha Davis was chairman of the program, having charge for the evening. Those assisting her were Misses Mary Lee Robertson, Sarah Grant and Jane Summerell. The general subject was "War Poetry," and each member of the program committee discussed some single phase of the general subject—reading illustrative poems.

Several original poems were read. The honors of the meeting were voted to the poem, "One Rose," written by the president of the society, Mr. Brown.

WINTHROP GRADUATE IS APPOINTED HOSTESS

Of interest to friends at Winthrop and in the city is the news of the appointment of Miss Mary B. Robertson, of Clemson, as hostess in Yellowstone Park for the coming season.

Miss Robertson was graduated last year from Winthrop College, and was at the time of her graduation president of the Student Government Association.—Rock Hill Herald.

Honored, Mrs. Briggs: "If I should die would you marry again?" Briggs: "Seems like I ought to know better, but you never can tell!"

NEW ADMINISTRATION HOLDS OPEN MEETING

Student Government Association

Stresses Individual Responsibility in Law Observance.

The first meeting under the new administration of the Student Government Association was held Tuesday evening at 6:30 in the auditorium. In opening the meeting, Martha Miller Holler, president, said that it is generally a good policy at the beginning of a year to get a new plan by which the association might be strengthened in order to find out what the student body thinks of its government, two girls from each class were asked to read papers giving their opinions of the needs of our Student Government. The consensus of opinion was that co-operation with the executive board and with the officers of the college is what we need in order to perfect our self-government. Instead of considering the executive board a police force whose sole object is to restrain and report rule-breaking, each girl should feel herself individually responsible for the rules of the Student Government. The association agreed that a possible penalty might be found in holding an open meeting once a month in which the president whose sole object is to restrain and report rule-breaking, each girl should feel herself individually responsible for the rules of the Student Government. NEWBERRY DAUGHTERS HOLD REGULAR MEETING

The Winthrop Daughters held their regular monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon, April 1, with Miss Gertrude Reeder at the home of Mrs. W. A. Hill.

On account of the quarantine, the next meeting will be held April 22 with Mrs. C. M. Morris, Prosperity.

The chapter will have a rummage sale about the 10th of May. Plans will be discussed at the next meeting.

After the business session Miss Reeder read a very interesting paper on "The Religion of the Northland."

At the close of the program the members enjoyed a short social period, during which the hostess, assisted by Mrs. W. A. Hill, Mrs. Reeder and little Bobbie Parks, served delicious ice cream and cake.

BATES-WAGNON.

The Grace Methodist church of Union, S. C., was the scene Thursday evening, April 9, of a most beautiful wedding, when Miss Margaret Bates, of Union, became the bride of Mr. George Keller, of Union, as officiated by the Reverend L. L. Wagon, father of the groom. The following participated in the wedding: Mrs. George Keller, of Union, as mother of the bride; Miss Virginia Shanklin, of Clemson College, as maid of honor; Miss Margaret Bates, of Union, as bridesmaid; and Miss Anne Keller, of Union, as bridesmaid. The groom had as his best man his brother, Mr. Leon Wagon, of Union, with Fred Horton, of Charlotte, and John DeLoake, of Camden, as groomsmen. The ushers were Messrs. Ned Wagon and Raymond Flynn, both of Union. Bridesmaids were Misses Anna and Betty Wagon and Messrs. George Keller and Paul Sawyer. Suzanne Johnson, little daughter of President and Mrs. L. L. Wagon, of Winthrop, was flower girl, and Master Duncan Eaves, of Union, ring-bearer. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. F. L. Bates, of Grangeburg. Mrs. Fred Keller presided at the organ, Miss Eddie Reckenbacker, violinist, and Miss Katherine Layton, soprano, rendered solos.

Much interest was felt in the wedding at Winthrop, where Miss Bates was formerly a student and for a few years was connected with the office of administration, and where she is much beloved by a host of friends. Mr. Wagon is a popular and aggressive young business man of Union, who has many friends in both the Carolinas. After the wedding, the couple left for a honeymoon in the East.

The following from Winthrop and Rock Hill were in attendance at the wedding: Mrs. D. E. Johnson, Miss Sara B. Marcus, Mrs. Ruth P. Bartlett, Mrs. E. J. Watson, Miss Lela Russell, Miss Anne Eskrine, Miss Beatrice Kelly, Miss Squigley Seabrook, Miss Lucy Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Don Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Myerson, Mrs. Freda Schumpeel and Miss Bevela Bush.

Many friends at Winthrop are interested in the marriage of Miss Anne Jo, Peterson, former Winthrop student, to Mr. Edith Morris, of Rock Hill. The wedding took place quietly on Saturday evening, April 1, at the home of Mrs. Anderson, at Rock Hill, at 7:15 p. m. The bride and groom left Saturday evening for a visit to the former's home in Sedalia, Mo.

The United States supreme court having held the motor vehicle theft act unconstitutional, that makes it unanimous.

Miss Geraldine P. Dilla, M. A., Will personally conduct her fourth general sailing from New York City in June. The party is limited to a small number of cultured, congenial people, who receive the careful personal attention of the conductor, her European friends, and her experienced European guides. A complete program of sight-seeing is offered for every day and some of the evening. Some of the special features of the Dilla European Tours are: the opportunity to meet and know the English poet, Wilfrid Wilson Gibson, and to hear him read his poems in London; a grand opera at the famous Opera in Paris; a drama in London, such as Shaw's "Saint Joan"; a grand opera in the ancient open-air amphitheatre or Roman arena in Verona, where the best Italian musicians present a midsummer festival in this romantic city; a real carillon concert—the unique music to be heard only in certain Belgian cities. These and many other advantages are wholly unobtainable or charged for as extras with other European tours.

The very high grade of all the accommodations, which are reserved beforehand, and the practically constant use of automobiles and other conveyances according to the custom of the country make a very high class European Tour, one that is much more than comfortable and much more enjoyable and educational as well as less in price than any tour under the management of a public travel agency.

The itineraries of four different tours include England, Scotland, Holland, Belgium, France, Monte Carlo, Switzerland and Italy. The absolutely inclusive prices range from $615 to $900. For information, address Miss Dilla, 615 College avenue, Rock Hill, S. C. Advt.

WINTHROP TRIO PLAYS IN CONCERT AT DARLINGTON

The Winthrop Faculty Trio, who were invited to Darlington by the Music Club, gave a delightful concert in the grammar school auditorium Monday, March 2. The trio is composed of Miss Charlotte DeVolt, violin; Miss Madge Books Sanders, piano; and Dr. Preston Edwards, cello. Miss Emma Jean Daniel, one of Darlington's students at Winthrop, assisted the trio in two numbers.

Dr. Edwards plays the violin with unassuming simplicity and without cheap display. Her technique is sure, and she plays with contagious warmth of sentiment and great artistic charm. She pleased her audience most in the sincere way she interpreted the beautiful "Meditation" from "Thais" and Kreisler's most satisfying "Rondino" on a theme by Beethoven.

Dr. Edwards delighted his hearers when he played the lovely "Berceuse" from "Joelynn" and his encore was truly appreciated. Dr. Edwards is no stranger to Darlington and Darlington is proud of the fact that he is one of her own.

Miss Madge Sanders accompanied the other artists in a most artistic manner and deserves, with the others, high praise for a most delightful evening's entertainment.

These gifted and finely trained specialists made music which was most appreciatively enjoyed by those who know what it requires to make artistic music. Darlington has local talent of a high order, as has been known for years. There are many talented musicians numbered among Darlingtonians and it should never be emphasized that the coming generation is maintaining the record, and the heritage of other years. A very striking evidence of this was afforded last year, when Darlington girls—Miss Mary Elizabeth Stanley and Miss Emma Jean Daniel—won championship honors in the state music memory contest. The Winthrop faculty members afforded an evening of rare pleasure to the audience.

The program was well-chosen and those who were not there have cause to regret it, and those who were there were enthusiastic in their praise and hope the Winthrop Faculty Trio will return to Darlington next spring—Darlington News and Press.

WINTHROP DAUGHTERS OF KINGSTREE MEET

The Winthrop Daughters held their March meeting on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Miss Martha Jenkins, with the new president, Mrs. Harry Britton, in the chair. There were 10 members present, and Miss Lolla Brockington and Mrs. L. R. Mcintosh were guests of the club. Miss Helen Boykin, gleener, gave an especially interesting report of the college taken from the alumni issue of The Johnsonian. Mrs. W. W. Holiday, treasurer, reported a balance of $21 on hand. The club decided to hold a May festival on May 1 at the courthouse square. At this time a May queen will be chosen from the high school and May pole dance will be prepared. Ice cream will be sold. At the conclusion of the meeting the hostess served refreshments.—The County Record.

T. M. Robinson: "My girl is the best of the town."
Ray Kennedy: "Yes, I passed the laundry today and saw her wringing."

FUN

Wife—"I heard a noise last night when you came in."

Hubby—"Perhaps it was the night falling."

Wife (caddy)—"No; it was the day breaking."

Young man: So Miss Ethel is your oldest sister? Who comes after her?
Small boy: Nobody ain't come yet, but pa says the first fellow that comes can have her.

Just So: What is all this spiritualism about?
Remains to be seen.

She: How could you truthfully tell that sharp-tongued Miss Carvy that she reminded you of a flower?
He: So she did, but I didn't mention it was a snap dragon.

Farmer: Well, now, what are you doing up in that tree?
Son: Just got a letter from the Sophomores in correspondence school telling me to have myself.

Dad: "Cigarette inhalation, high ball construction, gentled snubbing and general cosmetics."—Technique.

"Annie," called her mistress, "just come into the dining room a moment. Now look at this. Watch me. I can write my name in the dust on this table."

Annie grinned. "It sure must be a grand thing," she said, "to have an education."

EFFICIENCY CHARACTERIZES NEW STAFF OF THE JOURNAL

We are glad to congratulate the members of the Journal staff for the year 1925-26. Each of these girls has shown especial fitness for work along this line by the merit of her literary ability, already shown at Winthrop. From the past record and the present standing of each member of the staff, the Journal is assured of a bright future.

We feel that the three literary societies have shown excellent judgment in the choice of the following officers:

Editor—Gladys Talbot.
Senior Literary Editors—Fanny Colton, W. H. L. S.; Louise Cameron, C. L. S.; Margaret Tribble, W. L. S. Junior Literary Editors—Grace Hughes, C. L. S.; Helen Sawyer, W. L. S.; Carolyn Parker, W. L. S. Assistant Literary Editors—Mary Ann Workman, W. L. S.; Polly Harrell, W. H. L. S.

Exchange Editors—Margaret Duckett, C. L. S.; Elizabeth Montague, C. L. S.

Business Manager—Helen Rosa, W. L. S.

Assistant Business Manager—Isabelle Byrd, W. L. S.; Cecelia Baker, W. H. L. S.; Elizabeth Parry, C. L. S.

Stenographers—Ruby Thompson, W. L. S.; Erlene Bishop, C. L. S.; Margaret Duvall, W. H. L. S.
